Dear Todd:

The results of the ZYT Game Design contest are finally in, and your entry is in a 6-way tie for grand prize! The contest was a big success, with well over 200 entries. The one "Best of ZYT" game world turned into two game worlds, then spawned a whole new series, "ZYT's Revenge".

Because of the tie, we added a bit extra to the prize -- your reward is $100 plus coupons for our eight next hot game releases! This should last you well into 1994, bringing you the latest hits, including Jill of the Jungle, KiloBlaster, and more.

The complete contest results are in the Epic MegaGames newsletter, and your game is documented in the ZYT's Revenge hint sheet. Ezanya is a great addition to the series, I think our fellow ZYTerS will love it. Congratulations!

Thanks for entering the contest, and good luck exploring ZYT's Revenge!

Best Regards,

Tim Sweeney

P.S. Keep pushing your game and graphics to the limit, you have a lot of talent for this, but keep in mind that the competition is very talented also.
